

GRADUATE 93 TODAY AT FRANKFORD HIGH

Alumni Will Take Important Part in Exercises to Be Conducted Tonight

HONOR STUDENTS NAMED

Frankford High School will award diplomas this evening to ninety-three boys and girls.

At this evening's commencement exercises the Rev. Walter F. Carson will deliver the invocation.

Honor students named: Richard P. Allen, president of the class numbering ninety-three, is shown in the center, and at the left of the picture is Mary A. Waters, secretary, with Marion R. Lopez, vice president, to the right.

FRANKFORD HIGH GRADUATES TODAY

Richard P. Allen, president of the class numbering ninety-three, is shown in the center, and at the left of the picture is Mary A. Waters, secretary, with Marion R. Lopez, vice president, to the right.

COLONIAL DAMES TO CENSOR PLAYS

First Definite Step in Movement for Raising the Social Standard of Philadelphia

TO REPORT VULGAR SHOWS

The Colonial Dames have organized a number of their members into a committee to censor plays.

This step is the first definite one to be taken in the raising of the social standard of Philadelphia.

At this meeting vulgar plays, dress, dancing and general deportment was held up for frank and remedial inspection.

Among those who are asked to serve on the committee on plays are Miss Sarah Penrose and Mrs. R. C. Drayton.

Deaths of a Day

Frank A. Buechner, treasurer of the firm of Kuenzel Bros., hat manufacturers, 361 Arch street, died yesterday of pneumonia at his home, 5110 North Wood street.

R. Bon Davis, thirty-five years old, of 25 Franklin avenue, Lansdowne, died of poisoning in the Hahnemann Hospital yesterday afternoon.

William H. Jackson, vice president of the A. Kipstein Chemical Co., of New York, and a member of the Clover Club, died of pneumonia at the Westchester Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Charles Foulke Strawn, eighty-four years old, a retired farmer, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jane F. Thomas, 1425 Gwynn street.

These instruments are the highest quality that can be made, beautifully finished, exquisitely engraved and represent the best that money could buy.

SPORTING GOODS. There's Only One M. & H. That's at 512. OPEN THURSDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS.

LEADER IS CHILLED BY COLLINGSWOOD

Only Twelve Persons at Mr. Trusens' Civic Meeting, but Refreshments Vanish

HE TAKES A BETTER VIEW

Even the lure of mountainous heaps of food and bottles of "pop" innumerable failed to interest the citizens of Collingswood, N. J., last night in civic betterment.

At 8 o'clock the advertised starting time for the meeting, one man sat at an audience; at 8:30 the assembly had been doubled; by 9:30 the sea of faces which the chairman looked down upon totaled twelve; and at 9:50 there was a rustling as the gathering donned hats and overcoats and poured from the Collingswood firehouse.

"Dry" Agent Also Declares Moonshiners Will Increase Under New Liquor Order

Things moved very slowly for the next three-quarters of an hour. What happened thereafter is described as follows by Mr. Trusens:

At 9:50 p. m. every one present except myself, put on his hat and overcoat and whiskered in great secrecy, departed for reasons best known to themselves.

Five warehouses in this city are affected by Kramer's order. They are at Front street and Girard avenue, Water and Tacker streets, Water street and Snyder avenue, Front and Queen streets and Fifth and South streets.

Enforcement officials estimate that in six months all bonded liquors out of the warehouses will have trickled down the throats of consumers.

At each bonded warehouse in this city two agents were detailed. These men are to be recalled and probably will be assigned to squads engaged in hunting down makers of liquor.

MAYOR SIGNS LEASES

City Rents Pier Space to Steamship Corporation

Mayor Moore signed a lease with the North Atlantic and Western Steamship Co. today for the use of part of Pier No. 19, North, for one year, at a rental of $35,500.

THE HOLMES PRESS, Printers 1315-29 Cherry Street Philadelphia

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. JEWELERS SILVERSMITHS STATIONERS

MASONIC JEWELRY Jeweled and Plain Watch Charms - Rings - Lapel Buttons

MASTERPIECES OF BUSINESS

It is a fortunate thing that the great masterpieces of English literature were printed in the days when all paper was all rag stock.

Crane's BUSINESS PAPERS

KAHN MAY PROBE BERGDOLL ESCAPE

House Military Affairs Chairman Backed by Committee in Inquiry Proposal

ASKS FOR FACTS HERE

Chairman Kahn, of the House military affairs committee, took up today the Grover Bergdoll case in Washington today and asked authority to proceed with a full investigation of his escape.

"WET" AUTOISTS ARRESTED

Four Men Taken in New York Name Philadelphia as Home

The auto, police say, contained nine quarts of whiskey and two automatic pistols. The prisoners gave the names of William S. Duncan, Thomas McGinn and Harry Weyman, salesman, and John R. Keim, a chauffeur.

A Home That's All Sunshine

WARM in Winter—cool in Summer—bright, chipper, cheerful the whole year through.

John H. McClatchy

REAL savings and GENUINE values in this great Linde February Furniture Sale

Savings Guaranteed 30 to 60 per Cent.

We positively undersell every other store in Philadelphia or your money back.

Don't be fooled by price-tag reductions. That is so silly. What does it mean when we know the price-tag artists paid the highest prices for their goods?

It is a pleasure to go through our assortments after viewing those of other stores.

PURCHASES HELD For future delivery upon payment of a deposit

OPEN EVENINGS Monday, Wednesday and Friday until 10 o'clock

HENRY LINDE 23d, Columbia & Ridge Aves.

NEGRO GETS CITY POST

W. F. Phillips Made Bookkeeper by A. Lincoln Acker

Following a conference with Mayor Moore this morning, A. Lincoln Acker, city purchasing agent, announced the appointment of William F. Phillips, a Negro, of 511 South Camar street, as a bookkeeper in the purchasing agent's office at a salary of $1700 a year.

BLOOD TRANSFUSION FUTILE

John J. Hayes Dies While Operation is Being Performed

Blood transfusion, resorted to in an effort to save the life of John J. Hayes, a wool merchant, of 908 West Rittenhouse street, failed, and Mr. Hayes died yesterday in the Pennsylvania Hospital.

A Wonderful Sale of 800 Conservative Overcoats conservatively valued at $55, $60, $65 and a few at $70—dark, rich Oxfords, Cambridge Grays, Blacks—

Standard year - in - year-out Overcoats—never out of style—good this season, good next season, good as long as men wear dignified, conservative Overcoats!

Most of them regular $60 and $65 values; some $55 values, a few $70—and at that, all conservatively stated—and now—

All in a Big Wonderful Sale $29

3000 Pairs of Separate Trousers

$4, $5, $6, $7, $8

Originally valued and sold at from $7 to $15

Look at the Trousers in our windows! When have you seen such values at such prices? Not in a long, long time! It's THE chance to stock up, to get an extra pair of trousers to piece out that old suit—to match your new suit—to wear with dark coat and vest.

Suits and Overcoats

at such prices as you'll not find for such qualities anywhere else in the City!

PERRY & C 16th & Chestnut Sts.